United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) Office Action (Official Letter) About Applicant's Trademark Application

U.S. Application Serial No. 97120097

Mark: VERSELINE

Correspondence Address:

JACOB ONG
PO BOX 403
LEHI UT 84043 UNITED STATES

Applicant: Shenzhen Kefei Trading Co., Ltd.

Reference/Docket No. IPLaw01511

Correspondence Email Address: ONGSLAWFIRM@outlook.com

NONFINAL OFFICE ACTION

The USPTO must receive applicant's response to this letter within six months of the issue date below or the application will be abandoned. Respond using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS). A link to the appropriate TEAS response form appears at the end of this Office action.

Issue date: August 23, 2022

The referenced application has been reviewed by the assigned trademark examining attorney. Applicant must respond timely and completely to the issue below. 15 U.S.C. §1062(b); 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(a), 2.65(a); TMEP §§711, 718.03.

Registration Refused - Section 2(d) Likelihood of Confusion

Registration of the applied-for mark is refused because of a likelihood of confusion with the mark in U.S. Registration No. 1999335. Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); see TMEP §§1207.01 et seq. See the attached registration ("Exhibit A").

The applied-for mark is "VERSELINE" in standard characters for "Cups; Dishes; Pots; Cake molds; Containers for household use; Cooking utensils, namely, grills; Scoops for household purposes; Soup bowls" in International Class 21.

The registered mark is "VERSE" in typed characters for "Furniture" in International Class 20.

In this case, the following factors are the most relevant: similarity of the marks, similarity and nature of the goods and services, and similarity of the trade channels of the goods and services. See In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1361-62, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1908 (Fed. Cir. 2012); TMEP §§1207.01 et seq.

Comparison of Marks

Marks are compared in their entireties for similarities in appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression. Stone Lion Capital Partners, LP v. Lion Capital LLP, 746 F.3d 1317, 1321, 110 USPQ2d 1157, 1160 (Fed. Cir. 2014); TMEP §1207.01(b)-(b)(v). "Similarity in any one of these elements may be sufficient to find the marks confusingly similar." In re Inn at St. John's, LLC, 126 USPQ2d 1742, 1746 (TTAB 2018) (citing In re Davia, 110 USPQ2d 1810, 1812 (TTAB 2014)), aff'd per curiam, 777 F. App'x 516, 2019 BL 343921 (Fed. Cir. 2019); TMEP §1207.01(b).

In this instance, the applied-for mark "VERSELINE" and the registered mark "VERSE" begin with the term "VERSE". Marks may be confusingly similar in sound and appearance where the same or similar terms appear in the compared marks and create a similar overall commercial impression. See In re Corning Glass Works, 229 USPQ 65, 66 (TTAB 1985) (holding CONFIRM and CONFIRMCELLS confusingly similar); TMEP §1207.01(b)(ii)-(iii). Here, the shared term "VERSE" is identical in sound, appearance, and commercial impression as used in the marks.

The inclusion of the term "LINE" in the applied-for mark and the apostrophe in the registered mark does not obviate the likelihood of confusion. Consumers are generally more inclined to focus on the first word in any trademark. See Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondée En 1772, 396 F.3d 1369, 1372, 73 USPQ2d 1689, 1692 (Fed. Cir. 2005) (finding similarity between VEUVE ROYALE and two VEUVE CLICQUOT marks in part because "VEUVE . . . remains a ‘prominent feature’ as the first word in the mark and the first word to appear on the label”). The first term in each mark is the shared term “VERSE”. Further, the apostrophe does not change the commercial impression or pronunciation of the shared term.

Based on the foregoing, the applied-for mark and registered mark are sufficiently similar to find a likelihood of confusion.

Comparison of Goods

The compared goods need not be identical or even competitive to find a likelihood of confusion. See On-line Careline Inc. v. Am. Online Inc., 229 F.3d 1080, 1086, 56 USPQ2d 1471, 1475 (Fed. Cir. 2000); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i). They need only be “related in some manner and/or if the circumstances surrounding their marketing are such that they could give rise to the mistaken belief that [the goods] emanate from the same source.” Coach Servs., Inc. v. Triumph Learning LLC, 668 F.3d 1356, 1369, 101 USPQ2d 1713, 1722 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (quoting 7-Eleven Inc. v. Wechsler, 83 USPQ2d 1715, 1724 (TTAB 2007)); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i).

Here, the goods at issue are related because the goods commonly emanate from the same commercial entity. In support thereof, the examining attorney has attached Internet evidence from manufacturers and retailers of furniture (“Exhibit B”). This evidence establishes that the same entity, such as Room&Board and Pottery Barn, commonly manufactures furniture as well as home goods and dinnerware, including cups, dishes, and household containers, under the same mark, which are marketed and sold through the same trade channels and to the same classes of consumers.

Thus, the goods of the applicant and registrant are considered related for likelihood of confusion purposes. See, e.g., In re Davey Prods. Pty Ltd., 92 USPQ2d 1198, 1202-04 (TTAB 2009).

Conclusion

Because the applied-for mark and the registered mark are similar and the goods are related, registration is refused for a likelihood of confusion under Section 2(d).

Although applicant’s mark has been refused registration, applicant may respond to the refusal by submitting evidence and arguments in support of registration.

Response Guidelines

Please call or email the assigned trademark examining attorney with questions about this Office action. Although an examining attorney cannot provide legal advice, the examining attorney can provide additional explanation about the refusal in this Office action. See TMEP §§705.02, 709.06.

The USPTO does not accept emails as responses to Office actions; however, emails can be used for informal communications and are included in the application record. See 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(c), 2.191; TMEP §§304.01-.02, 709.04-.05.

If the applicant has any questions or requires assistance in responding to this Office action, please telephone the assigned examining attorney.

RESPONSE GUIDANCE

- Missing the response deadline to this letter will cause the application to abandon. The response must be received by the USPTO before midnight Eastern Time of the last day of the response period. TEAS maintenance or unforeseen circumstances could affect an applicant's ability to timely respond.
- Responses signed by an unauthorized party are not accepted and can cause the application to abandon. If applicant does not have an attorney, the response must be signed by the individual applicant, all joint applicants, or someone with legal authority to bind a juristic applicant. If applicant has an attorney, the response must be signed by the attorney.
- If needed, find contact information for the supervisor of the office or unit listed in the signature block.

ENHANCING YOUR DINNERWARE COLLECTION

Once you've covered the basics, enhance your collection by adding a few extra pieces, like bright plates or seasonal mugs. You can then mix-and-match to create a dish set for any occasion. To make your set more useful, you can also add serving dishes and other unique items.

- Even if you've chosen a neutral dish set, you can still add color by adding a set of brightly colored mugs or salad plates to your collection. You can also experiment with bold patterns to add interest to your kitchen table.
- Other extras, like teapots, sugar pots and serving dishes, are also important to have for entertaining. Be sure to choose dishes that coordinate well with your main dish set.
- Having a few seasonal pieces allows you to be ready for holiday gatherings year after year. Choose from pastel Easter prints for spring, Thanksgiving prints for fall and fun Christmas prints for the winter holidays.

When your kitchen cabinets are filled with great dishware, setting the table for a family gathering or a get-together with friends is simple. Start by choosing a colorful set, an elegantly patterned set or a classic white set that can effortlessly transform from casual to formal, then enhance your set with extra fun dishes and serveware. With so many styles, colors and materials to choose from, you can mix-and-match to create the perfect collection that's both stylish and functional.

★★★★★ [5] Great. I would buy another if extra large.

Comments about Saco Large Canister

I purchased the small canister and wish I had a medium or extra large size. I need three.

★★★★★ [5] Love the canister. Wish you had three instead of two.

Comments about Saco Small Canister

As I said before, the color is great just wish you had a extra large canister. I would love to have three.

★★☆☆☆ [2] Looks great, not that functional

Comments about Saco Large Canister

The canister looks great and feels substantial. The cork bottom protects any surface the canister rests on. However, the cork bottom of the canister I received is rounded enough to wear it doesn't sit flat, meaning the canister wobbles.

★★★☆☆ [3] Saco Canister

Comments about Saco Small Canister

This canister is just OK. It looks fine but the lid does not fit securely and is constantly needing to be adjusted to stay straight. How often you need to access whatever you are planning on keeping inside will determine whether or not you like this container. It will also not keep its content fresh because of the ill fitting lid so keep that in mind.

★★★★★ [5] A Step Above the Rest

Comments about Saco Small Canister

I was just looking at this Saco Canister this morning and thought "anything from Room & Board really steps up the game". It is on a wide countertop in our bathroom and is used to hide small loose items. It gives the whole bathroom a sleek, calm and finished look. The quality of Room & Board is always solid. Whether it is something like this small canister or a larger item like a sofa or bed frame. Their products are the perfect blend of style, timelessness and durability. #sweepstakes

★★★★★ [5] Heavy and lovely

Comments about Saco Large Canister

I don't have much to say, it's simply a large and solid concrete jar. The finish is really nice and I like the cork on the bottom and lid to keep everything in place. I use it in my kitchen to hold salt or sugar or whatever I please.

★★★★★ [5] Interesting Material

Comments about Saco Large Canister

I really like this to the point where I've now ordered the other size as well. I am familiar with the company and already have other products, so I was happy to see the R&B was now carrying their wares. I will say that it's not really obvious that it's made of an interesting, innovative, alternative material, as the white looks like smooth, matte-glazed ceramic. Perhaps the grey would offer more some color variation that would make you say, "what is that made of?" Regardless, I know what it is, and that adds something for me. I also like that it's a handmade product from a small company. Note that it is quite heavy, so perhaps not for everyone. #sweepstakes

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

USPTO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Office Action (Official Letter) has issued

on August 23, 2022 for

U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 97120097

A USPTO examining attorney has reviewed your trademark application and issued an Office action. You must respond to this Office action in order to avoid your application abandoning. Follow the steps below.

(1) Read the Office action. This email is NOT the Office action.

(2) Respond to the Office action by the deadline using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS). Your response must be received by the USPTO on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time of the last day of the response period. Otherwise, your application will be abandoned. See the Office action itself regarding how to respond.

(3) Direct general questions about using USPTO electronic forms, the USPTO website, the application process, the status of your application, and whether there are outstanding deadlines to the Trademark Assistance Center \(TAC\).

After reading the Office action, address any question(s) regarding the specific content to the USPTO examining attorney identified in the Office action.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

- Check the status of your application periodically in the Trademark Status & Document Retrieval \(TSDR\) database to avoid missing critical deadlines.
- Update your correspondence email address to ensure you receive important USPTO notices about your application.
- Beware of trademark-related scams. Protect yourself from people and companies that may try to take financial advantage of you. Private companies may call you and pretend to be the USPTO or may send you communications that resemble official USPTO documents to trick you. We will never request your credit card number or social security number over the phone. And all official USPTO correspondence will only be emailed from the domain “@uspto.gov.” Verify the correspondence originated from us by using your Serial Number in our database, TSDR, to confirm that it appears under the “Documents” tab, or contact the Trademark Assistance Center.

- Hiring a U.S.-licensed attorney. If you do not have an attorney and are not required to have one under the trademark rules, we encourage you to hire a U.S.-licensed attorney specializing in trademark law to help guide you through the registration process. The USPTO examining attorney is not your attorney and cannot give you legal advice, but rather works for and represents the USPTO in trademark matters.
