INTRODUCTION

The referenced application has been reviewed by the assigned trademark examining attorney. Applicant must respond timely and completely to the issue(s) below. 15 U.S.C. §1062(b); 37 C.F.R. §§2.62(a), 2.65(a); TMEP §§711, 718.03.

SUMMARY OF ISSUES:

- REFUSAL - SECTION 2(d) - LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION
- REQUIREMENT - TRANSLATION
- REQUIREMENT - IDENTIFICATION OF GOODS

REFUSAL - SECTION 2(d) - LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

THIS PARTIAL REFUSAL APPLIES ONLY TO THE GOODS SPECIFIED THEREIN

Registration of the applied-for mark is refused because of a likelihood of confusion with the mark(s) in the following U.S. Registration(s):

- Reg. No. 3209146 ("FORESTER" in standard character form for "Wood burning stoves")
  - This partial refusal applies only to applicant's "camping stove."
- Reg. No. 5606049 ("SKÖGGS" in stylized text for goods including "Athletic apparel, namely, shirts, pants, jackets, footwear, hats and caps, athletic uniforms")
  - This partial refusal applies only to applicant's "cap."

Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); see TMEP §§1207.01 et seq. See the attached registration(s).

Trademark Act Section 2(d) bars registration of an applied-for mark that so resembles a registered mark that it is likely a potential consumer would be confused, mistaken, or deceived as to the source of the goods and/or services of the applicant and registrant. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(d). A determination of likelihood of confusion under Section 2(d) is made on a case-by case basis and the factors set forth in In re E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361, 177 USPQ 563, 567 (C.C.P.A. 1973) aid in this determination. Citigroup Inc. v. Capital City Bank Grp., Inc., 637 F.3d 1344, 1349, 98 USPQ2d 1253, 1256 (Fed. Cir. 2011) (citing On-Line Careline, Inc. v. Am. Online, Inc., 229 F.3d 1080, 1085, 56 USPQ2d 1471, 1474 (Fed. Cir. 2000)). Not all the du Pont factors, however, are necessarily relevant or of equal weight, and any one of the factors may control in a given case, depending upon the evidence of record. Citigroup Inc. v. Capital City Bank Grp., Inc., 637 F.3d at 1355, 98 USPQ2d at 1260; In re Majestic Distilling Co., 315 F.3d 1311, 1315, 65 USPQ2d 1201, 1204 (Fed. Cir. 2003); see In re E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d at 1361-62, 177 USPQ at 567.

In this case, the following factors are the most relevant: similarity of the marks, similarity and nature of the goods and/or services, and similarity of the trade channels of the goods and/or services. See In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1361-62, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1908 (Fed. Cir. 2012); In re Dakin's Miniatures Inc., 59 USPQ2d 1593, 1595-96 (TTAB 1999); TMEP §§1207.01 et seq.

Comparison of the Marks

Applicant's applied-for mark is "SKOGSMAN" in standard character form. The marks in the registrations are indicated above.

Marks are compared in their entireties for similarities in appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression. Stone Lion Capital Partners, LP v. Lion Capital LLP, 746 F.3d 1317, 1321, 110 USPQ2d 1157, 1160 (Fed. Cir. 2014) (quoting Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondee En 1772, 396 F. 3d 1369, 1371, 73 USPQ2d 1689, 1691 (Fed. Cir. 2005)); TMEP §1207.01(b)-(b)(v). "Similarity in any one of these elements may be sufficient to find the marks confusingly similar." In re Davia, 110 USPQ2d 1810, 1812 (TTAB 2014) (citing In re 1st USA Realty Prof'l, Inc., 84 USPQ2d 1581, 1586 (TTAB 2007)); In re White Swan Ltd., 8 USPQ2d 1534, 1535 (TTAB 1988)); TMEP §1207.01(b).

The mark in Reg. No. 3209146 is "FORESTER" and the attached evidence from Translate.com, YourDictionary and TechDico shows that the word "SKOGSMAN" translates to "forester" in English. Under the doctrine of foreign equivalents, a mark in a common, modern foreign language and a mark that is its English equivalent may be held confusingly similar. TMEP §1207.01(b)(vi); see, e.g., In re Aquamar, Inc., 115 USPQ2d 1122, 1127-28 (TTAB 2015); In re Thomas, 79 USPQ2d 1021, 1025 (TTAB 2006). Consequently, marks comprised of foreign wording are translated into English to determine similarity in meaning and connotation with English word marks. See Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondee en 1772, 396 F.3d 1369, 1377, 73 USPQ2d 1689, 1696 (Fed. Cir. 2005). Equivalence in meaning and connotation may be sufficient to find such marks confusingly similar. See In re Aquamar, Inc., 115 USPQ2d at 1127-28; In re Thomas, 79 USPQ2d at 1025.

Applicant's mark is in Swedish, which is a common, modern language in the United States. The doctrine is applied when "the ordinary American purchaser" would "stop and translate" the foreign term into its English equivalent. Palm Bay, 396 F.3d at 1377, 73 USPQ2d at 1696 (quoting In re Pan Tex Hotel Corp., 190 USPQ 109, 110 (TTAB 1976)); TMEP §1209.03(g). The ordinary American purchaser includes those proficient in the foreign language. In re Spirits Int'l, N.V., 563 F.3d 1347, 1352, 90 USPQ2d 1489, 1492 (Fed. Cir. 2009); see In re Highlights for Children, Inc., 118 USPQ2d at 1271. In this case, the ordinary American purchaser would likely stop and translate the mark because the Swedish language is a common, modern language spoken by an appreciable number of consumers in the United States. Specifically the attached evidence from Babbel Magazine and Routes North shows that this language is spoken by a sizeable word population and an appreciable number of U.S. consumers in the United States. Furthermore this Swedish wording translates directly to a common English word describing types of camping product users and the attached evidence from applicant's Etsy storefront page shows that the applicant actually provides a translation of the word on the webpage stating that "SKOGSMAN" is "Translated From Scandinavian languages" followed by the word "forester." Therefore, under the doctrine of foreign equivalents, these two marks are confusingly similar due to their having the same meaning.

With respect to the comparison of the applied-for mark and the mark in Reg. No. 5606049, although marks are compared in their entirieties, one feature of a mark may be more significant or dominant in creating a commercial impression. See In re Detroit Athletic Co., 903 F.3d 1297, 1305, 128 USPQ2d 1047, 1050 (Fed. Cir. 2018) (citing In re Dixie Rests., 105 F.3d 1405, 1407, 41 USPQ2d 1531, 1533-34 (Fed. Cir. 1997)); TMEP §1207.01(b)(viii), (c)(ii). Matter that is descriptive of or generic for a party's goods and/or services is typically less significant or less dominant in relation to other wording in a mark. See Anheuser-Busch, LLC v. Innopak Sys. Pty Ltd., 115 USPQ2d 1816, 1824-25 (TTAB 2015) (citing In re Chatam Int'l Inc., 380 F.3d 1340, 1342-43, 71 USPQ2d 1944, 1946 (Fed. Cir. 2004)). In the present case, given that the goods in question for the likelihood of confusion determination are the applicant's "caps," the "MAN" portion of the mark is less significant in terms of affecting the mark's commercial impression since it simply identifies that the intended wearers of the goods are men, and therefore renders the "SKOGS" portion the more dominant element of the mark.

Further reinforcing the dominance of the "SKOGS" portion of the applicant's mark is the fact that this portion appears first in the mark. Consumers are generally more inclined to focus on the first syllable in any trademark or service mark. See Palm Bay Imps., Inc. v. Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin Maison Fondee En 1772, 396 F.3d 1369, 1372, 73 USPQ2d 1689, 1692 (Fed. Cir. 2005) (finding similarity between VEUVE ROYALE and two VEUVE CLICQUOT marks in part because "VEUVE . . . remains a 'prominent feature' as the first word in the mark and the first word to appear on the label"); Century 21 Real Estate Corp. v. Century Life of Am., 970 F.2d 874, 876, 23 USPQ2d 1698, 1700 (Fed Cir. 1992) (finding similarity between CENTURY 21 and CENTURY LIFE OF AMERICA in part because "consumers must first notice th[e] identical lead word"); see also In re Detroit Athletic Co., 903 F.3d 1297, 1303, 128 USPQ2d 1047, 1049 (Fed. Cir. 2018) (finding "the identity of the marks' two initial words is particularly significant because consumers typically notice those words first").

The wording in Reg. No. 5606049, "SKÖGGS", and the dominant portion of the applicant's mark, "SKOGS" are visually very similar and essentially phonetic equivalent and thus sound similar. Similarity in sound alone may be sufficient to support a finding that the compared wording is confusingly similar. In re 1st USA Realty Prof'l's, Inc., 84 USPQ2d 1581, 1586 (TTAB 2007) (citing Krim-Ko Corp. v. Coca-Cola Bottling Co., 390 F.2d 728, 732, 156 USPQ 523, 526 (C.C.P.A. 1968)); TMEP §1207.01(b)(iv).

The mark in Reg. No. 5606049 is in stylized text, however, the applicant's mark is in standard character form. A mark in typed or standard characters may be displayed in any lettering style; the rights reside in the wording or other literal element and not in any particular display or rendition. See In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1363, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1909 (Fed. Cir. 2012); In re Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d 1342, 1348, 94 USPQ2d 1257, 1260 (Fed. Cir. 2010); 37 C.F.R. §2.52(a); TMEP §1207.01(c)(iii). Thus, a mark presented in stylized characters and/or with a design element generally will not avoid likelihood of confusion with a mark in typed or standard characters because the word portion could be presented in the same manner of display. See, e.g., In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d at 1363, 101 USPQ2d at 1909; Squirtco v. Tomy Corp., 697 F.2d 1038, 1041, 216 USPQ 937, 939 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (stating that "the argument concerning a difference in type style is not viable where one party asserts rights in no particular display"). As such, the dominant "SKOGS" portion of the applicant's mark could be displayed in the same exact font and stylization as how the phonetically equivalent and visually similar "SKÖGGS" appears in the registered mark.

As such, viewed as a whole, applicant's mark is confusingly similar to the registered marks.

Comparison of the Goods

The relevant goods from the application and registrations are listed further above.

Determining likelihood of confusion is based on the description of the goods and/or services stated in the application and registration at issue, not on extrinsic evidence of actual use. See In re Detroit Athletic Co., 903 F.3d 1297, 1307, 128 USPQ2d 1047, 1052 (Fed. Cir. 2018) (citing In re i.am.symbolic, llc, 866 F.3d 1315, 1325, 123 USPQ2d 1744, 1749 (Fed. Cir. 2017)).

In this case, the application uses the broad wording "caps" to describe their goods, which presumably encompasses all goods of the type described, including the more narrow "athletic apparel, namely, ... caps" identified in Reg. No. 5606049. See, e.g., In re Solid State Design Inc., 125 USPQ2d 1409, 1412-15 (TTAB 2018); Sw. Mgmt., Inc. v. Ocinomled, Ltd., 115 USPQ2d 1007, 1025 (TTAB 2015). Thus, applicant's and registrant's these of goods are legally identical. See, e.g., In re i.am.symbolic, llc, 127 USPQ2d 1627, 1629 (TTAB 2018) (citing Tuxedo Monopoly, Inc. v. Gen. Mills Fun Grp., Inc., 648 F.2d 1335, 1336, 209 USPQ 986, 988 (C.C.P.A. 1981); Inter IKEA Sys. B.V. v. Akea, LLC, 110 USPQ2d 1734, 1745 (TTAB 2014); Baseball Am. Inc. v. Powerplay Sports Ltd., 71 USPQ2d 1844, 1847 n.9 (TTAB 2004)).

Additionally, the goods and/or services of the parties have no restrictions as to nature, type, channels of trade, or classes of purchasers and are "presumed to travel in the same channels of trade to the same class of purchasers." In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1362, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1908 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (quoting Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Packard Press, Inc., 281 F.3d 1261, 1268, 62 USPQ2d 1001, 1005 (Fed. Cir. 2002)). Thus, these of applicant's and registrant's goods are related.

With respect to the goods in Reg. No. 2309146 of the parties need not be identical or even competitive to find a likelihood of confusion. See On-line Careline Inc. v. Am. Online Inc., 229 F.3d 1080, 1086, 56 USPQ2d 1471, 1475 (Fed. Cir. 2000); Recot, Inc. v. Becton, 214 F.3d 1322, 1329, 54 USPQ2d 1894, 1898 (Fed. Cir. 2000) ("[E]ven if the goods in question are different from, and thus not related to, one another in kind, the same goods can be related in the mind of the consuming public as to the origin of the goods."); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i).

The respective goods and/or services need only be "related in some manner and/or if the circumstances surrounding their marketing are such that they could give rise to the mistaken belief that [the goods and/or services] emanate from the same source." Coach Servs., Inc. v. Triumph Learning LLC, 668 F.3d 1356, 1369, 101 USPQ2d 1713, 1722 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (quoting 7-Eleven Inc. v. Wechsler, 83 USPQ2d 1715, 1724 (TTAB 2007)); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i).

The attached Internet evidence consists of screenshots of products from TOAKS, TMS, US Stove, WINNERWELL and Ironclad Supply shows that the same entities manufacture stoves that are wood burning and also portable so that they can be used when camping. This evidence establishes that the same entity commonly manufactures the relevant goods and markets the goods under the same mark, the relevant goods are sold or provided through the same trade channels and used by the same classes of consumers in the same fields of use and also that the goods are similar or complementary in terms of purpose or function since the language used in both the applicant's and registrant's identification is commonly used to describe the same singular piece of equipment. Therefore, applicant's and registrant's goods are considered related for likelihood of confusion purposes. See, e.g., In re Davey Prods. Pty Ltd., 92 USPQ2d 1198, 1202-04 (TTAB 2009); In re Toshiba Med. Sys. Corp., 91 USPQ2d 1266, 1268-69, 1271-72 (TTAB 2009).

Although applicant's mark has been refused registration, applicant may respond to the refusal(s) by submitting evidence and arguments in support of registration. However, if applicant responds to the refusal(s), applicant must also respond to the requirement(s) set forth below.

REQUIREMENT - TRANSLATION

To permit proper examination of the application, applicant must submit an English translation of all wording in the mark because it is foreign wording. 37 C.F.R. §§2.32(a)(9), 2.61(b); TMEP §809. The following is suggested: The English translation of “SKOGSMAN” in the mark is “forester”. TMEP §809.03. See the attached translation evidence.

REQUIREMENT - IDENTIFICATION OF GOODS

Applicant must clarify the wording “camping kettle” in the identification of goods in International Class 28 because it is indefinite and too broad. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §§1402.01, 1402.03. This wording is indefinite because it does not make clear what the goods are. Further, this wording could identify goods in more than one international class. For example, electric camping kettles are in International Class 11 and non-electric camping kettles are in International Class 21.

The wording “potable” presented as part of "camping stove potable" in the identification of goods appears to be a typographical error and is thus indefinite; the spelling must be corrected or the wording further clarified. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §1402.01(a). Applicant may substitute the following wording for the incorrect spelling, if accurate: “portable.” Additionally, these types of portable camping stove goods are classified incorrectly. Applicant must amend the application to classify the goods in International Class 11. See 37 C.F.R. §§2.32(a)(7), 2.85; TMEP §§1401.02(a), 1401.03(b).

The wording “Magnesium Ferro Flint Fire Starter” in the identification of goods is indefinite and must be clarified because this appears to be a Magnesium Ferro flint used for starting fires but that is not immediately clear from the current language. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §1402.01. Applicant may substitute the following wording, if accurate: “Magnesium Ferro flint used as a fire starter.” These goods are also classified incorrectly. Applicant must amend the application to classify the goods in International Class 34. See 37 C.F.R. §§2.32(a)(7), 2.85; TMEP §§1401.02(a), 1401.03(b).

The wording “camping knife” is classified incorrectly. Applicant must amend the application to classify the goods in International Class 8. See 37 C.F.R. §§2.32(a)(7), 2.85; TMEP §§1401.02(a), 1401.03(b). The suggested amendment below also substitutes the plural “camping knives” for the current singular version of the items.

Applicant must clarify the wording “cap” in the identification of goods in International Class 28 because it is indefinite and too broad. See 37 C.F.R. §2.32(a)(6); TMEP §§1402.01, 1402.03. This wording is indefinite because it does not make clear what the goods are. Further, this wording could identify goods in more than one international class. For example, surgical caps are in International Class 10, non-metal bottle caps are in International Class 20 and caps being headwear are in International Class 25. Based on the additional wording in the identification of goods, the suggested amendment below only provides caps being headwear in International Class 25 but if applicant is providing other types of “caps” then these can also be substitute into the identification of goods. For further assistance with identifying and classifying goods and services in trademark applications, please see the USPTO’s online searchable U.S. Acceptable Identification of Goods and Services Manual. See TMEP §1402.04.

Applicant should note that any wording in bold, in italics, underlined and/or in ALL CAPS below offers guidance and/or shows the changes being proposed for the identification of goods and/or services. If there is wording in the applicant's version of the identification of goods and/or services which should be removed, it will be shown with a line through it such as this: ~~strikethrough~~. When making its amendments, applicant should enter them in standard font, not in bold, in italics, underlined or in ALL CAPS.

Applicant may substitute the following wording, if accurate:

Class 8: Camping knives

Class 11: Electric camping kettles, portable camping stoves

Class 21: Non-electric camping kettles

Class 25: Caps being headwear

Class 34: Magnesium Ferro flint used as a fire starter

See TMEP §§1402.01, 1402.03.

An applicant may only amend an identification to clarify or limit the goods, but not to add to or broaden the scope of the goods. 37 C.F.R. §2.71(a); see TMEP §§1402.06 et seq., 1402.07. Generally, any deleted goods may not later be reinserted. See TMEP §1402.07(e).

Advisory – Multiple Class Application

The application identifies goods and/or services in more than one international class; therefore, applicant must satisfy all the requirements below for each international class based on Trademark Act Section 1(b):

(1) List the goods and/or services by their international class number in consecutive numerical order, starting with the lowest numbered class.

(2) Submit a filing fee for each international class not covered by the fee(s) already paid (view the USPTO's current fee schedule). The application identifies goods and/or services that are classified in at least 5 classes; however, applicant submitted a fee(s) sufficient for only 1 class(es). Applicant must either submit the filing fees for the classes not covered by the submitted fees or restrict the application to the number of classes covered by the fees already paid.

See 37 C.F.R. §2.86(a); TMEP §§1403.01, 1403.02(c).

How Many People Speak Swedish, And Where Is It Spoken?

Hint: there are far fewer Swedish speakers than IKEA shoppers in the world.

BY STEPH KOYFMAN | April 29, 2018

If you suspect that Swedish is sort of a niche language, you are correct. There are approximately 10.5 million speakers of Swedish around the world, and more than 90 percent of them live in Sweden. The question of "how many people speak Swedish" overlaps a lot with the question of "how many people live in Sweden."

To put that in perspective, more than 780 million customers worldwide visit IKEA stores every year, and there are 8.5 million people living in New York City. The total amount of Swedish speakers in the world could easily fit within the New York metro area, and IKEA's annual foot-traffic population dwarfs this little nation more than 74 times over. That's a lot of people who have no idea what their furniture names mean.

A Brief History Of Swedish

Swedish is one of the Indo-European languages that descended from Old Norse, which was spoken by the Germanic peoples during the Viking Era. Viking merchants spread the language across Europe (and even into present-day Russia).

From Old Norse came the family of North Germanic languages in the 14th or 15th century. Prior to that, Swedes, Icelanders, Danes and Norwegians spoke the same language. Even today, Swedish, Norwegian and Danish continue to be mutually intelligible (depending on the dialect).

The common standardized language that Swedes speak today became firmly established by the Swedish government's spelling reform of 1906.

Where In The World Is Swedish Spoken?

Swedish is the official language of Sweden, as well as one of two national languages in Finland.

Estonia was actually once part of the Swedish Empire, and until World War II, there were quite a few speakers in Estonia and Latvia. But many Swedish-speaking people fled to Sweden due to a combination of Soviet and Nazi activity in the area. Estonia's remaining Swedish minority enacted its own cultural administration in 2007, however.

There's also a small Swedish-speaking minority in Ukraine, owing to those who settled there after they were forced out of Estonia in the 18th century, which was scooped up by the Russian Empire at that time.

Other somewhat significant concentrations of Swedish speakers can be found in the other Scandinavian countries (Denmark and Norway), as well as the United States, the U.K., Spain, Germany, France, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Belgium and Australia.

How Many People Speak Swedish In Sweden?

There are approximately 9.2 million inhabitants of Sweden who speak Swedish as a mother tongue, and nearly everyone in Sweden speaks the language.

This is out of 9.9 million total inhabitants (as of 2016). Sweden also has five officially recognized minority languages: Sami, Meänkieli, Finnish, Romani Chib and Yiddish.

How Many People Speak Swedish In The Rest Of The World?

Of all the North Germanic languages spoken today, Swedish has the most speakers.

In Finland, the only other country where it has official status, there are approximately 291,000 people who speak Swedish (5.4 percent of the total population). Among this demographic, approximately 25,000 live in the Åland Islands, which is an autonomous province that counts Swedish as its official language.

There is another cluster of Swedish speakers in Northwest Estonia, and though there are no official figures, it's believed that most of the 8,000 previously existing Swedish-speaking Estonians fled to Sweden during World War II. Today, approximately 1,000 of them remain in Estonia.

Over in North America, there are about 76,000 Swedish speakers in the United States, and about 17,000 in Canada.

Why Learn Swedish?

For one, Swedish is one of the easiest languages for an English speaker to learn. But that in itself does not constitute a good reason to learn a language. Essentially, Swedish is a practical choice for anyone interested in learning Scandinavian languages in general. It's the most widely spoken one, and it'll

Open the door to the rest of them, too. It's basically like getting multiple languages for the price of one.

Beyond that? Swedish culture is pretty cool, and you'll probably have fun with it.

HOW MANY PEOPLE SPEAK SWEDISH?

by Routes North

Swedish is the official language of Sweden and is predominantly spoken throughout Sweden.

However, this beautiful Germanic language is spoken in several other countries as well.

With nearly 11 million speakers worldwide, Swedish is one of the 100 most spoken languages in the world, ranks the 14th most spoken language in Europe, and is also the most spoken Scandinavian language.

SEND ME THE TIPS

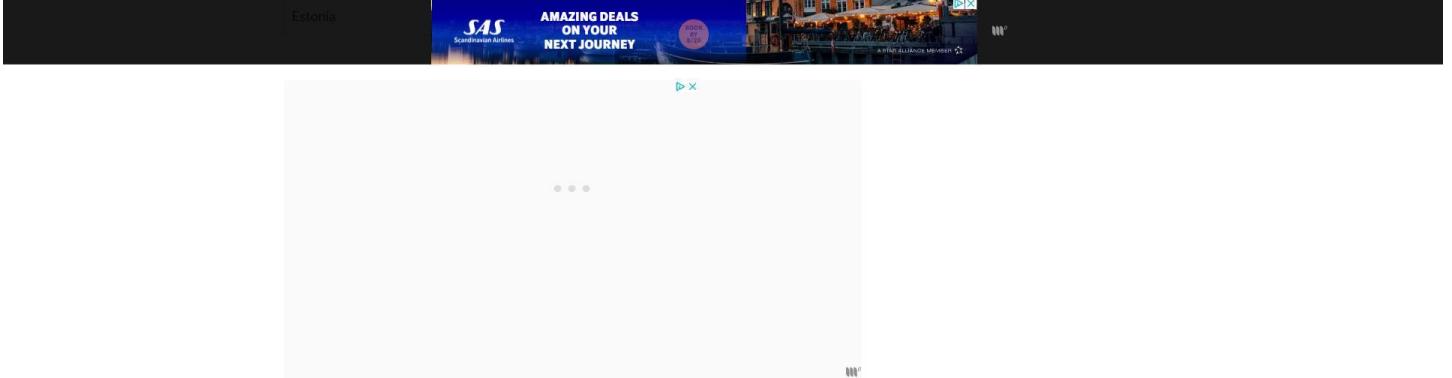

In the United States, there is a large pocket of Swedish descendants who live in Minnesota. This is due to a mass migration of Swedes in the 19th century, mostly consisting of farmers and folks searching for new opportunities.

Over a quarter of a million Swedes migrated to the USA, and to this day there is still some Swedish spoken there.

Here is a breakdown of where most of the Swedish speakers live:

Country	Number of Swedish speakers
Sweden	10,500,000
Finland (including Åland)	263,000
USA	76,000
Canada	17,000
Denmark	17,000
Norway	16,000

How many people speak Swedish in Finland?

As the table above shows, Finland has the most Swedish speakers outside of Sweden.

Being the second official language of Finland, Swedish is widely spoken throughout the country. Most of the Swedish-speaking population is concentrated near the western and southern coasts.

How many people study Swedish?

It is estimated that around 40,000 people are studying Swedish at a university.

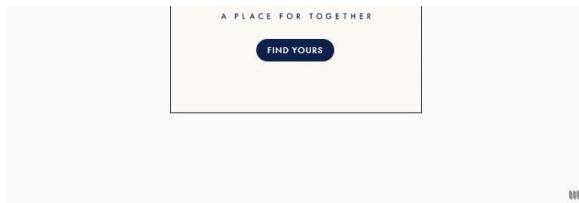

It is taught at over 200 colleges worldwide and is the most studied of the Scandinavian languages.

Furthermore, there are currently 1.39 million Swedish learners on Duolingo – one of the world's most popular language-learning apps. Many of these are migrants and refugees arriving in Sweden for the first time, from countries as diverse as Somalia, the USA and Iran.

Many new Swedish speakers arrive from countries like Somalia

What other languages are spoken in Sweden?

Besides Swedish, there are many other languages spoken in Sweden.

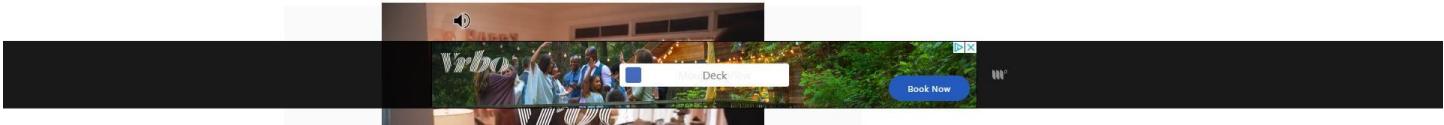

English is the second most spoken language, and Swedes are known for being fantastic English speakers.

It's estimated that around 90% of Swedes are fluent in English, especially the younger generations.

It's safe to say that most Swedes are bilingual in at least one language. Most Swedes try to learn a third language in school, usually German, French, or Spanish.

According to the Swedish Parliament website, there are an additional five national minority languages in Sweden. These are:

- Finnish
- Meänkieli (Tornedal Finnish)
- Yiddish
- Romani
- Sami

Are there dialects in Sweden?

The Swedish language has several distinct dialects throughout the country. Each dialect consists of unique traits that Swedes are usually able to tell apart:

Skåne

In Skåne, the region on Sweden's southernmost tip, you will find the 'Skånska' dialect.

This dialect may be considered one of the most unique dialects of Swedish.

In fact, some Swedes outside of Skåne (and especially many foreigners who learn Swedish) claim that Skånska can be difficult to understand! It truly is one of the most distinctive Swedish accents.

Northern Sweden

Norrköping, Lappland, Ångermanland, and Västerbotten are all located in the far north, where the dialects are quite different from the rest of Sweden but are similar to each other.

So, if a Stockholmer were to meet someone from one of these areas, they wouldn't be able to distinguish exactly which area they are from but could immediately recognize that they are from the north.

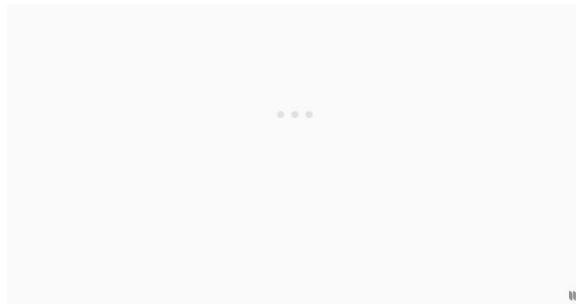

Additionally, one of the most recognizable quirks of the Northern dialects is that they inhale quickly when agreeing with someone or saying "yes." This noise replaces any actual words and is a feature throughout Sweden, but is definitely most common in northern parts.

Gothenburg

Swedish is known for sounding very 'sing-songy' when spoken. In Gothenburg, you may find the sing-songy dialect is more pronounced, and their words go up and down a lot (we won't mention the Swedish chef from the muppets, but some people do).

Swedes consider the Gothenburg accent to sound happier as well, which may be influenced by

Norwegian – and this is

Stockholm

Stockholmers have a dialect of their own, which some would consider sounding more 'posh' – a little bit like 'Received Pronunciation' in England.

Another major characteristic of a Stockholm accent is that they love slang and to shorten words. For example, "Kungsträdgården," or the king's garden, often gets shortened to "Kungsan." Another example is that "Tunnelbanan" (Stockholm's subway) often gets shortened to "Tubben."

Is Swedish dying out?

Swedish is definitely not a dying language. Yes, Swedes are learning and using English frequently, but the Swedish language continues to be taught to the new generations and almost all Swedish households speak Swedish on a day-to-day basis, rather than English. That doesn't stop English words (and specifically, Americanisms) slipping into a surprising number of sentences though, especially among folks under the age of about 40.

Swedish is safe in other ways, too. Sweden is filled with Swedish art, literature, media, music, and movies. With 11 million people speaking the language, it is certainly not dying or even close to becoming endangered. This beautiful and unique language will stay alive and thriving for a long time!

This is a NICE ferro rod! I love the handle and it sparks great! Case is nice and I like the size so that I can put a few other items in it and have everything in one place! Like the other reviewer said, I too was hesitant on buying from a new seller and also wondered if this was too good to be true, but low and behold this is a great shop with great products....if you're contemplating buying, don't have a second thought. Shipping was fast and it was packaged very well. 5 stars all day long!!

Gin on Aug 21, 2022

Excellent. THANK YOU! Really fast shipping, and exactly as advertised (which is great). Tried it right away, and yes, it works. Spark! Awesome!!! I kinda took a risk purchasing from a new seller - thought this may be "too good to be true." But it was just what I wanted (the canvas bag is a great addition) so I tried. Nicely rewarded, as it is perfect. I'm really pleased, and now I plan to order two of your cups next. Thank you again.

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

USPTO OFFICIAL NOTICE

Office Action (Official Letter) has issued on August 25, 2022 for

U.S. Trademark Application Serial No. 97120442

A USPTO examining attorney has reviewed your trademark application and issued an Office action. You must respond to this Office action in order to avoid your application abandoning. Follow the steps below.

(1) **Read the Office action**. This email is NOT the Office action.

(2) Respond to the Office action by the deadline using the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS). Your response must be received by the USPTO on or before 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time of the last day of the response period. Otherwise, your application will be abandoned. See the Office action itself regarding how to respond.

(3) Direct general questions about using USPTO electronic forms, the USPTO website, the application process, the status of your application, and whether there are outstanding deadlines to the Trademark Assistance Center \(TAC\).

After reading the Office action, address any question(s) regarding the specific content to the USPTO examining attorney identified in the Office action.

GENERAL GUIDANCE

- **Check the status of your application periodically** in the Trademark Status & Document Retrieval \(TSDR\) database to avoid missing critical deadlines.
- **Update your correspondence email address** to ensure you receive important USPTO notices about your application.
- **Beware of trademark-related scams**. Protect yourself from people and companies that may try to take financial advantage of you. Private companies may call you and pretend to be the USPTO or may send you communications that resemble official USPTO documents to trick you. We will never request your credit card number or social security number over the phone. And all official USPTO correspondence will only be emailed from the domain “@uspto.gov.” Verify the correspondence originated from us by using your Serial Number in our database, TSDR, to confirm that it appears under the “Documents” tab, or contact the Trademark Assistance Center.

- Hiring a U.S.-licensed attorney. If you do not have an attorney and are not required to have one under the trademark rules, we encourage you to hire a U.S.-licensed attorney specializing in trademark law to help guide you through the registration process. The USPTO examining attorney is not your attorney and cannot give you legal advice, but rather works for and represents the USPTO in trademark matters.
